

Amsterdam Trade Bank

Member of Alfa - Bank Group

---

Martin Czurda
CEO and Managing Director

Martin Czurda is the CEO of Amsterdam Trade Bank and the spokesman of the Managing Board. On the Management Board he is responsible for all market activities, being the Client Business and the Treasury.

Dr. Czurda was born in Vienna (Austria) in 1959. He is married and has a new born son. He moved to the Netherlands in September 2009.

Before joining Amsterdam Trade Bank in 2009, Martin Czurda worked for 15 years for Raiffeisen Zentral Bank AG Vienna, Austria, in the international business, primarily in Russia/ CIS, Central Eastern Europe but also the Arab world. He held different positions in RZB like the Head of Loan Syndication, Global Financial Institutions, and Global Markets. He furthermore represented the bank in all major events with the IMF, EBRD, EIB, ADB and various international conferences and road shows. Martin Czurda started his career in banking with Bank Austria AG, Vienna in the late 80's.

Martin Czurda graduated from the University of Economics, Vienna in 1983, and is a holder of a Magister Degree in Business Administrations and of a Doctor's Degree in Economics (1988). In his free time Mr. Czurda enjoys mountain hiking and mountaineering summits in Central Asia, Himalayas, Caucasus, Andes and Alps both in the winter and summer. Mr. Czurda also was a passionate marathon runner until recently. He enjoys reading books on history and politics.

---